QUICK RELIEF
FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping in the "kneys" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headaches—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Barre Man Says Goldine Great Medicine

W. R. Page, Berlin, Vt., came to the Goldine man at Cummings & Lewis' Drug Store, Saturday night, and said: "That's the greatest medicine I ever got hold of. I had sour stomach and heartburn so bad that I had to take soda nearly all the time. I had to be careful how I used tobacco or it would come back onto me. I suffered terribly with it and doctored a lot, but didn't get any relief. I decided to try Goldine, and that helped me. I haven't had a spell with heartburn since. I am working hard, but my work doesn't tire me like it did."

"When I use how much better I feel. I got Mr. Page to try Goldine, and it helped her just as it had me. I came down to-night to get another bottle for her. I don't think I need any more myself, but am glad to get it for her, for it certainly is a great medicine, and I hope you will publish this, so people at Barre will know about Goldine."

Goldine is sold at Cummings & Lewis' Drug Store, in Barre; at Rivers' Drug Store, Montpelier; Brishin & Brishin, Waterbury; and George C. Sanborn, Northfield, Vt. Please state disease when ordering by mail. Call and talk with your friends who are using Goldine. They can tell you if it's good.

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds
as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

Mustard does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Just massage Mustard into in the finger-tips gently. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears.

Use Mustard for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia), 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

A DANGEROUS SENATE.
Its Reactions Against Progress a Menace to the Nation.

There is a spirit in the United States intensely dangerous to the international peace of this country. It shows itself day after day in speeches by both Republicans and Democrats. It expresses itself in the following general manner:

"Let us forget Europe. Let us abolish it from our minds. Let us get out of there and stay out. Let us enter into no arrangements of control or of conference of any kind hereafter with any European person on any European matter. America is enough. Let us devote ourselves exclusively to our own hemisphere. Thus we shall have peace."

But what is this policy? It is precisely the policy we were in fact following before the great war. And what did we reap? We reaped an American expeditionary force fighting and bleeding on European soil.

It is more than amazing, it is pitiful, that experienced and distinguished United States senators should tell us that we can get peace by forgetting Europe, when we have just finished participating in a European war which we entered after having forgotten Europe most completely for 30 years. The policy of not thinking about Europe is a manifest failure as an insurance against not fighting in Europe.

In fact, one may safely go farther and say that the policy of not thinking about Europe is one of the surest possible ways of allowing European quarrels to proceed to the point of requiring and of exacting a toll of American lives.

Why did we Americans give no assistance diplomatically to Sir Edward Grey in 1914, when he was trying to persuade Austria-Hungary to submit its complaint against Serbia to a council of the nations? Why did we do nothing to deter the Kaiser from starting the fire which we afterward had to help put out? Because our ignorance of European affairs was perfect. Because our president himself did not know, and said he did not know what all this European uproar was about. We were not in daily touch with British statesmen and with French statesmen in a continuous conference of the statesmanship of the world. We were not engaged in all exchange of facts and of ideas with other countries in a central diplomatic body of a league of nations. We did not know enough about Europe, we did not know enough about Germany, to say to the Kaiser in 1914 what we said to him in 1917—"You are trying to conquer and wreck the world, and we are going to stop you." We could have said it to him in 1914, and we might have dissuaded him from even trying to conquer the world, if we had been possessed of the European information which a continuous central international diplomatic body would have given us.

The prime purpose of any sensibly organized league of nations is to promote international information and to facilitate a common decision on matter of common concern. Whether or not a league of nations should go beyond counsel to coercion is debatable. But that there should be a place for counsel, and for continuous counsel, about Europe and about America and about the sales of the sea is surely beyond question. We tried ignorance and it failed. Why not try knowledge?—Chicago Daily News.
